

1 Report. Your first step is to go on line to www.idtheft.utah.gov, the Identity Theft Reporting Information System (I.R.I.S.), which is the official law enforcement web site from which all claims are reported to local, state or federal law enforcement agencies.

2 Repair. The site provides information to assist individuals who are victims or suspect they may be victims of identity theft. It is intended as a general guide of steps you will need to take to resolve the problems created by ID theft.

3 Research. Learn more about protecting your self from current scams, phishing, illegal solicitations by mail, e-mail, and phone, and other schemes.

Your local banker is always concerned about your personal financial security and is available to assist you if you have any worries or fears about identity theft. If you do not have access to a computer, or if you would just like to discuss concerns about ID theft, you may contact your local banker and ask for assistance in accessing the ID THEFT CENTRAL reporting system.
